#25 Artist: Donovan

Medina located in the Great Room @ Whatville, 30 Trujillo Lane, Angel Fire, NM

Directions: see #19 on the tour map

“I am a painter and silversmith. I refer to my collection of art as donodina. I use Benjamin Moore paint on canvas for the vivid pigments. As a member of Zia Pueblo, I have shown and sold paintings at the Native American Art Gallery hosted by The State of New Mexico. I am also a silversmith and I work with turquoise and silver to make rings & pendants. I am excited to share my art with whomever it speaks to and inspires.” Donovan Medina

#1 Artist: Laurie Phelps

Located at 26047 E. Hwy 64 in the Taos Canyon

Directions: Located close to mile marker 261 in the Taos Canyon.

Approximately 14 miles from the blinking light at Hwy 64/Hwy 434 in Angel Fire.

Laurie Hill Phelps has been a producing artist in Taos canyon for 42 years. Her studio is easy to find on highway East US 64 and is open to the public. She is represented in Taos on Kit Carson road by The Ranch at Taos. A wonderful gallery of talented artists. Laurie’s paintings are part of collections throughout the US and parts of the world. Laurie works in water color and oil. Her contemporary paintings of northern New Mexico are colorful and vibrant. Laurie also teaches classes to all ages. Her experience can meet you at all levels. You can find her paintings online at artamerica.com and she can be reached at phelps.laurie@gmail.com.

#2 Artisan: Bob McIntyre

located at 26317 E. Hwy 64 in the Taos Canyon.

Directions: leaving #1, travel left onto Hwy 64 toward Angel Fire. The McIntyre Studio is 2.6 miles on the left hand side of the road.

Approximately 11 miles from Angel Fire

“ I Have been making custom fly rods for over twelve years. My fly rods are made from graphite, fiberglass or bamboo. I try to make them unique by utilizing different types of handles and various color combinations of threads. I look all over the country for quality blanks and frequently acquire them from Canada.” Bob McIntyre

#24 Artisan: Gail Tate/Wooden it Be Nice

located in the Great Room @ Whatville, 30 Trujillo Lane, Angel Fire, NM

Directions: See #19 on the tour map

“ I design and create hand crafted wood items that are functional, as well as pieces of art, that are fun to look at and enjoy. Most of the items are created using a wood lathe. Other items are cut, laminated, sanded and finished to the desired specifications. It is a pleasure to be part of the Angel Fire Studio Tour again this year!” Gail Tate

#23 Artist: Katrina

Shirley located in the Great Room @ Whatville, 30 Trujillo Lane, Angel Fire, NM

Directions: see #19 on the tour map

My journey started for putting paint on canvas when we moved to this beautiful valley in 2018, with so many aspens, early morning color in the sky and evening sunsets as my model for expressing what I see from my eyes, to my heart, to a blank canvas. I enjoy the process of blending color and light.

#3 Artist: Melissa McIntyre

located at 26317 E. Hwy 64 in the Taos Canyon with #2 & #4.

Directions: See #2

Approximately 11 miles from Angel Fire. (on the right)

"I am a block print artist, watercolorist and acrylic painter. Favorite subjects are old crumbling buildings, rusty farm implements, seascapes and of course beloved New Mexico landscapes." Melissa McIntyre

#4 Artist: Sarah McIntyre

also located at 26317 E. Hwy 64 in the Taos Canyon with #2 & #3

Directions: See #2

Approximately 11 miles from Angel Fire.

Sarah is a fine art landscape and portrait photographer who also makes her own prints, and enjoys sharing the art of photography with others through teaching. She particularly loves photographing the unique beauty found in the landscape, architecture, and people of New Mexico and the great Southwest.

#21 & #22 Artisans:
Michael Turri and
Johnese Turri located at
Whatville, 30 Trujillo Lane,
Angel Fire, NM

Directions See #19 on tour

Michael and Johnese Turri find a sense of art in a wide variety of recycled materials. Michael likes making frames from old wood for his digital art. "The more weather beaten the better," he says. Johnese calls her unique style of art "whimsical." Besides all the rustic/recycled stuff, her passion is needle felting of snow people, trees and small bowls

#5 Artisans: Enchanted Circle Pottery- Kevin & JoAnne DeKeuster located at 26871 East US Hwy 64, in the Taos Canyon

Directions: leaving #2 continue on Hwy 64 toward Angel Fire. Drive approx. 4.3 miles to Enchanted Circle Pottery, turn left into their driveway on the left side of the road.

Approximately 7 miles from Angel Fire.

ENCHANTED CIRCLE POTTERY is owned and operated by artists Kevin and JoAnne DeKeuster. The couple create a variety of functional and sculptural ceramic pieces. The functional ware is lead free, dishwasher and microwave safe. Their artwork is fired solely with wood, an ancient Japanese process, that produces one of a kind iridescent colors.

#20 Artisan & Baker: Charmaine Romero located in the Great Room @ Whatville, 30 Trujillo Lane, Angel Fire, NM

Directions: see #19 on the tour map

Charmaine loves to bake and craft because she loves to see people smile! When you taste one of her homemade baked goods, it will make you happy!

She also specializes in wreaths. Since she did not have any photos, you'll want to visit her location and see for yourself!

#19 Artisan: Ray Renfro

located at Whatville, 30 Trujillo Lane, Angel Fire, NM

Directions: Leaving #18 take N. Angel Fire Rd back Mountain View Blvd. turn right. Drive almost 2 miles, turn right on Camino Grande, then turn left into Whatville.

Ray Renfro invites you into his magical creative land of Whatville. This year he is hosting 6 other artists/artisans #19 thru #25 on the tour map. And he is providing a food cart and live music!

#6 Artist: Ramona

Bagley located at 28 Fria Court in Angel Fire, NM

Directions: Leaving #5 turn left on Hwy 64 and travel toward Angel Fire. Drive 7 miles to the blinking light then turn right. Drive south 0.3 miles and turn right onto Fria Road, Take a right onto Fria Court. (which is unmarked. Look for the Studio Art Tour signs. This is the only road that runs along in front of a row of houses). On your right at the end of that road, drive through the gate labeled A- Fire Water LLC. & 'Water Works Gallery'. The Gallery entrance is to the right of the overhead door (located in the middle of the building)

Ramona is an award winning artist and has shown at fine art galleries in Taos, Angel Fire, Phoenix, Boston, and Arizona. She teaches painting and composition online. Her work is colorful southwest landscapes, animals, people and still lifes in oils and pastels.
